

Best Practices of the Department

- Research: The department has the highest number of research scholars working with JRF in the university (pursuing – 8, submitted – 1, completed – 1)
- Competitive Exams: The department has produced 5 JRF, 2 GATE, 16 NET, and 3 SET.
- Teaching: The department contributes to the academia by inculcating teaching skills and has produced over 150 teachers and professors in the entire years and 30 during the assessment period.
- JRF Awardees engage free coaching classes for the students.
- Placement in Higher Education: Assistance in securing opportunities for advanced studies and professional growth. NET/SET Coaching.

Best Practices of the Department

- Our students were champions in the intra-collegiate cultural competitions and sports and actively participate in co-curricular activities.
- Women Enrollment & Empowerment: Focus on increasing women's participation in higher education and academic programs. A course on women's literature is included in the curriculum.
- Research on Current Trends: Conducting studies aligned with evolving academic and societal needs.
- Peer Group Teaching by JRF&SRF Scholars to the students belonging to our department and other departments.
- Socially Relevant Research: Engaging in projects addressing cultural and social issues.
- Encouraging students to work on regional and subaltern studies.